About Training Program

The rise and boom of technological advancements in almost all industries is resulting in increased competition amongst working professionals. Most banking, finance, technology, media, and marketing industries are welcoming professionals who possess industry-specific learning and skills that are beneficial in improving the company's performance. Practical industry knowledge and understanding of effective methodologies are highly important for achieving profitable outcomes. In India, our students feel stagnant in their respective jobs after a certain tenure. They believe there is no learning happening whatsoever and they are often unaware of newly introduced industry trends and global practices within their respective domains. This leads them to look for work-integrated learning programs and courses that would upgrade their skills and make them efficient enough to run the latest projects successfully. To bridge the gap of industry-specific needs and uplift the careers of present studying students' community, the PRIMAX FOUNDATION has introduced ONE DAY INTERNATIONAL UNIVERSITY, INDUSTRY INTEGRATED TRAINING PROGRAM.

Objectives of the Training Program

- To better understand the latest Education Technology and practices – across the world
- To facilitated the establishment of a network of International Students
